

TG 6/2/82

EDITH M. AZEVEDO

Edith M. Azevedo, 68, of 562 Winthrop St., formerly of 116 Whittenton St., a retired attendant nurse, died suddenly at her home early this morning. She was the wife of Joaquin Azevedo.

Born in East Taunton, she was a daughter of the late John P. and Catherine (Lynch) Chaisty. A lifelong resident of Taunton, she was a communicant of Immaculate Conception Church.

She was an attendant nurse at Taunton State Hospital for 15 years before her retirement in 1979. A graduate of Taunton schools, she was a member of the Taunton Gaelic Society and of the Jolly Senior Citizens Club.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by three sons, David M. and Gerald F. Azevedo, both of Taunton, and David P. Azevedo of Phoenix, Ariz.; three daughters, Irene F. Wheaton and Jacqueline A. Norton, both of Taunton, and Mrs. Clifford A. (Jean E.) Butler of Phoenix, Ariz.; two brothers, Lawrence Chaisty of Riverside, Conn., and John Chaisty of East Taunton; two sisters, Catherine Chaisty of Raynham and Mrs. Louise Hiscoe of Revere; nine grandchildren and four great grandchildren.