

ette, Friday, January 9, 1981

OBITUARIES

JOHN S. AZEVEDO

SOUTH EASTON — John S. Azevedo of 51 Central St., a retired machinist and the husband of Mildred G. (Holmes) Azevedo, died Thursday after a long illness at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Brockton. He was 62.

Born in Brockton, he was a son of the late John S. and Mary (Ornellas) Azevedo and lived all of his life in South Easton, where he was educated.

A US Army veteran of World War II, he was working as a machinist for the Crofoot Gear Co. in South Easton at the time of his retirement. He was a communicant of Holy Cross Church.

Survivors, besides his wife, include a daughter, Patricia A. Sousa of South Easton; three brothers, James, Joseph and Ralph and two sisters, Mrs. Olive Starr and Mrs. Alice Coleman, all of South Easton; two grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

ALBERTE E. NUNES

Albert E. Nunes, 87, formerly a sales clerk for two downtown clothing stores, died Thursday at Morton Hospital following a long illness. He was the husband of the late Belmira (Viera) Nunes and resided at 11 Fremont St.

Nunes worked for 60 years as a sales clerk at Foster's clothing store and at Goldstein and Antine clothing store. He retired in 1973.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Augustus E. and Maria (daConcepcao) Nunes. He was educated in city schools and lived in Taunton all his life.

Survivors include a son, Albert E. Nunes, Jr. of Taunton, the principal of Bennett School; a daughter, Mrs. Charles (Marjorie) Cherry of Warwick, R.I.; seven grandchildren; nine great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.