

GRACE MATTOS ALMEIDA

Mrs. Grace (Booth) Mattos Almeida, 66, of 35 Williams Ave., Raynham, wife of John Mattos Almeida, died this morning at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Fall River, she was a daughter of the late Edward L. and Mary I. (Walton) Booth. A resident of Raynham for the past 47 years, Mrs. Mattos Almeida was a communicant of Holy Family Church and a member of the Holy Family Women's Guild.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, Donald Mattos of Attleboro; a daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Joanne) Machado of Raynham; five brothers, Edward and Arthur Booth, both of Raynham, Harold Booth of Buzzards Bay, William Booth of Middleburg, Fla., and Everett Booth of South Hadley Falls.

Also, four sisters, Mrs. Charles (Mary) Correia and Mrs. Joseph (Doris) Terrao, both of Taunton, Mrs. Daniel (Esther) Charron of Clearwater, Fla., and Mrs. William (Florence) Letendre of East Taunton; six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. 3/18/82