

JOHN V. AMARAL

John V. Amaral, 80, of 237 Washington St., retired owner of the Amaral Linguica Co., died this morning at Morton Hospital after a brief illness. He was the husband of the late Mary (Gracia) Amaral.

A former textile worker, he was employed in various mills, including the Ansonia Mill of East Taunton, until retiring.

He then operated and owned the former Amaral Linguica Co. of Taunton until 1965.

Born in Terceira, Azores, son of the late Joseph V. and Maria (Rose) Amaral, he came to this country when he was 16 and had been a Taunton resident ever since. He was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church.

He is survived by three sons, Joseph V. Amaral and John V. Amaral Jr., both of Taunton, and Richard V. Amaral of Pawtucket, R.I.; four grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.
