

JOSEPH E. AMARAL JR.

Joseph E. Amaral Jr., of 152 Oak St., who owned and operated Amaral's Package Store in East Taunton with his wife for 25 years, died suddenly yesterday at his home. He was 67.

Amaral and his wife, Mrs. Edna L. (King) Amaral, ran the package store at 56 Old Colony Ave. until three years ago when they retired.

Born in East Taunton, son of the late Joseph P. and Maria L. (DeSouza) Amaral, he was educated in Taunton schools.

A communicant of Holy Family Church, he was a member of the Holy Ghost Society. He had lived at 56 Old Colony Ave. before moving to the Ardmore Apartments three years ago.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Charlene M. Cleveland, a son, Marcus D. Amaral, and a brother, Manuel Amaral, all of Taunton.

Also, he leaves several nieces and nephews.
