

LUCINDA BARBOZA

Lucinda Clemente (Resendes) Barboza, 65, of 50 White St., and wife of the late Angelo Moniz Barboza, died last night at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in St. Michael Azores, Mrs. Barboza was the daughter of the late Manuel and Lucinda (Fernandes) Resendes.

She had lived in the United States since 1957, and retired three years ago after working as a folder at Renie Curtain Factory.

She was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church.

Survivors include one son, Joseph Barboza of Taunton; four daughters, Mrs. Louis (Juliette) Borges, Mrs. Richard (Lucy) Rose, Mrs. Leo (Ana Maria) Pilote, all of Taunton, and Mrs. Jose (Angela) Duarte of Berkley.

She also leaves one brother, Manuel Clemente of New Bedford; two sisters, Mrs. Florianna Freites of Toronto, Canada, Mrs. Francisco (Lourdes) Cardoza of St. Michael, Azores; and seven grandchildren.
