JOHN BURGESS

John Burgess, 61, of 254 Washington St., an employee of Reed & Barton Corporation, died Wednesday at Morton Hospital after a brief illness.

Born in Taunton, son of Mrs. Laura (Martin) Burgess and the late Cassimer Burgess, he was educated in Taunton schools, and was a communicant of St. Jacques Church.

Prior to his illness, he had been employed as a plater at Reed & Barton. He was an Army veteran of World War Two, and a member of David F. Adams Post 611, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In addition to his mother, of Taunton, he leaves four sons, Gerard, Edward, Raymond, and Joseph Burgess, all of Taunton, and a daughter, Mrs. Cecile Dusseault, also of Taunton.

He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Henry (Evelyn) Nolette, of Taunton, along with seven grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. 1/13/83 TG
