

ette, Wednesday, August 20, 1980

Obituaries

MANUEL CABRAL

MIDDLEBORO — Manuel J. "Babe" Cabral, Jr., 67, an avid baseball player and employee of the town school department, died yesterday at St. Luke's Hospital following a brief illness. He was the husband of Jennie (Obara) Cabral and resided at 4 Pearl Court.

Born in Middleboro, he was the son of the late Manuel J. and Emma (Faulkner) Cabral.

He was a member and former manager of the Mitchell Memorial Club, a member of the Middleboro Council of the Knights of Columbus, a former manager of the Plymouth Shoe Company and a former employee of the French Shriner Shoe Company.

He played for the Twilight League and was a communicant of Sacred Heart Church.

Surviving, besides his wife, are a son, Francis W. Cabral of Princeton, Ill.; three daughters, Mrs. Russell (Margaret) Beckman, Mrs. Ernest (Joanne) Sylvia and Barbara Cabral, all of Middleboro; a brother, Bernard Cabral of Middleboro; a sister, Mrs. George (Emma) Oubord of Middleboro; four grandchildren; two great grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.