

Obituaries

P

MRS. AMELIA CORDEIRO EAST PROVIDENCE, R.I. —

Mrs. Amelia (Vincent) Cordeiro of 14 Brightridge Ave., the wife of Frank V. Cordeiro, died Saturday at Miriam Hospital. She was 75.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Maria (Pimental) Vincent and was a life-long resident of Providence.

A communicant of St. Francis Xavier Church, she was also a member of its Holy Rosary Sodality.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Cordeiro is survived by a son, Frank V. Cordeiro Jr. of Coventry, and three daughters, Mrs. Beatrice Ferreira, Mrs. Frances Perry and Mrs. Virginia Tager, all of East Providence.

Also, she leaves three sisters, Mrs. Eva Arruda of Raynham, Mrs. Claire Ventura and Mrs. Constance Oliver, both of East Providence, eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.