

JOSEPH V. COSTA

Joseph Viera Costa, 64, of 30 Blinn's Court died Sunday afternoon shortly after arrival at Morton Hospital. He was the husband of Maria (Martins) Costa.

Born in St. Michael, Azores, he was the son of the late John P. and Maria Theresa (Viera) Costa. He had been a resident of Taunton since 1933.

He was employed for many years as an electrician at the L.G. Balfour Co. of Attleboro, from which he retired in May of 1982.

He was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church.

Besides his wife, he leaves five sons, John P. Costa of East Taunton, Manuel Costa, Anthony Costa and Daniel V. Costa, all of Taunton, and Joseph V. Costa, Jr. of Salem, N.H.; one brother, Manuel P. Costa of Arlington; one sister, Mrs. Esteves (Mary J.) Rego of Fall River; and four grandchildren.

Congregational Church.

For about 25 years, he was a rural mail carrier for the Berkley division of the Taunton Post Office. He was a member of the Rural Carriers Association.

In addition to his wife, he leaves two daughters, Loretta Marshall and Joan Marshall, both of Berkley; four brothers, David Marshall of Berkley, Knowlton Marshall of Colorado Springs, Colo., Robert Marshall and Mark Marshall, both of Berkley; three sisters, Mrs. Eleanor Mello of Dighton, Mrs. John (Gladys) McCrohan of Berkley and Mrs. Francis (Hattie) McCrohan, both of Berkley.

JOSEPH MARSHALL

BERKLEY — Joseph H. Marshall, 54, of 105 Bayview Ave., husband of Margery A. (Fielding) Marshall, died Friday morning at his home after a sudden illness.

Born in Berkley, he was the son of the late Joseph H. and Ruth (Bassett) Marshall. He attended Berkley

8/6/57