

Mary A. DeMenezes

NEWPORT — Mary A. DeMenezes, 61, of 11 Freeborn St. died yesterday morning at home. She was the wife of Manuel P. DeMenezes.

Mrs. DeMenezes was a clerk-typist for the publications department of the Naval War College, Newport, retiring in 1982 after 18 years of federal civil service.

She was a past president of St. Mary's Church Parish Guild and a communicant of the church.

Born in Middletown, she was a daughter of the late Frank and Mary (Parvo) Silvia.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Francis P. DeMenezes of Newport and Manuel P. DeMenezes Jr. of Portsmouth; three daughters, Mrs. Beverly J. Craft, Mrs. Deborah E. Circosta and Miss Pamela J. DeMenezes, all of Newport; a sister, Mrs. Laura Medeiros of Middletown, and nine grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. from the Hambly Funeral Home, 30 Red Cross Ave., with a Mass of Christian Burial in St. Mary's Church, Spring Street, at 11. Burial will be in St. Columba Cemetery, Middletown.

6/11/84 P5