

ROSE DeANDRADE

Rose M. (Farias) DeAndrade, 70, of 63 Plain St. was dead on arrival at Morton Hospital Monday, following a long illness. She was the wife of Joseph DeAndrade.

She was employed for many years at Coppercraft Guild, and then worked at F.B. Rogers Co. for three years until her retirement in 1973.

Daughter of the late Joseph and Maria DaGloria (Ferreira) Farias, she was born in Warwick, R.I. and moved to the Azores as a child.

She had resided in Taunton for the past 29 years, and was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

In addition to her husband, she leaves four sons, Alfonse M. DeAndrade of Bridgewater, Fernando M. DeAndrade of Brockton, and Osvaldo M. DeAndrade and Charles M. Andrade, both of Taunton; and a daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Irene) Mello of Taunton.

Also surviving are five brothers, Manuel Martins of Providence, R.I., Urbano Martins of New Bedford, and Joseph Martins, Sebastian Martins, and John Martins, all of Taunton; and four sisters, Mrs. Joseph (Maria) Costa, Mrs. Manuel (Conceicao) Pimental, and Mrs. Adelina (Graziela) Teixeira, all of Taunton, and Mrs.

Richard (Leonora) Stone of East Bridgewater.

She also leaves 14 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.
