

Drummond Dies

Manuel J. Drummond, a former Taunton Municipal Light Plant commissioner, died late this morning at Morton Hospital.

Drummond, founder the Drummond Printing Company at 56 Cohannet St., now operated by his son, William, was also known as an advocate of Portuguese causes.

Obituary information, unavailable today, will appear in tomorrow's paper.

1/2/81