

SETH DUTRA

Seth Dutra, 85, of 222 Muddy Cove Lane, Dighton, died early this morning at his home.

He and his wife, Laura (Mattos) Dutra, had celebrated their 50th anniversary in September, 1980.

Son of the late Seth and Anna (Gomes) Dutra, he was a native and lifelong resident of Dighton.

Until his retirement 15 years ago, he was a self-employed market gardener, having worked over 50 years on his father's farm. He began working on the farm during his youth, as a helper for his father.

He was a communicant of St. Peter's Church of Dighton.

His widow is his only immediate survivor.

6/11/84