World War I veteran

Anthony Dutra Jr.

FAIRHAVEN — Anthony Dutra Jr., 84, of Fairhaven, died yesterday after a long illness. He was the husband of Adelaide (Daniels) Dutra.

He died at St. Luke's Hospital.

He was born in New Bedford and lived most of his life there before moving to Fairhaven in 1951. He was a communicant of St. Joseph Church. He was a retired letter carrier, working at the New Bedford Post Office for 42 years.

Mr. Dutra was a member of the Retired Letter Carriers Association Branch No. 18, a Navy veteran of World War I and a member of American Legion, Post 1.

He was a former burial officer and a member of the Last Man's Club and the Hawthorne Athletic Club.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Dorothy Hathaway of Houston and Mildred Logan of Newport Beach, Calif.; a son, James A. of Acushnet; two brothers, Edward and Matthew, both of Dartmouth; six grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Austin-Carney Funeral Home, 549 County St., New Bedford.
