

1875
AMELIA ELLIOTT

Amelia (Vargas) Elliott, 81, of 4 Bartlett St., formerly of West Weir St., died Friday at Morton Hospital, following a long illness. She was the widow of Walter Elliott.

A housewife for most of her life, she was a member of the Taunton Garden Club and a former member of the Taunton Girls' Club and the Auxillary of Silver City Barracks, Veterans of World War One.

She was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

Daughter of the late Frank J. and Anna A. (Goulart) Vargas, she was born in Taunton.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ann Ruby of Miami, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. Frank (Anna) Silva of Taunton; eight grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.