

6 25 83
JUNIVAL ESPINOLA

Junival Espinola, 50, the husband of Barbara W. (Pina) Espinola of 167 Williams St., died last night at New England Sinai Hospital in Stoughton after a long illness.

Born in New Bedford, son of Joseph Espinola of Raynham and the late Louise (Rose) Espinola, he was a resident of Taunton for the past 16 years.

He was a grinder for many years at the Easton Foundry in Easton until his illness almost three years ago, and was a veteran of the Korean Wars.

Surviving him in addition to his wife and father are his stepmother, Leah Espinola of Raynham; three sons, Troy J. Espinola and Brian Espinola, both of Taunton, and Rodney C. Espinola of Clearwater, Fla.; and two daughters, Debra L. Espinola and Jeanine Espinola, both of Taunton.

Also surviving are a brother, Daniel Espinola of New Bedford; a sister, Mrs. Mary Pina of California; and a granddaughter, Nicole Espinola.