

Rose dies; was water supervisor

LEESBURG, Fla. — Frank S. Rose, Jr. of 119 Royal Palm Ave., Lady Lake, Fla., formerly of Raynham, Mass., died Friday at the Leesburg Regional Medical Center here. Husband of Thelma (Benton) Rose, he was 69.

Until his retirement in 1979, he was the supervisor of the Taunton Water Department, where he had been employed for over 20 years.

During World War Two, he was a private, first class, in the U.S. Army.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Frank S. and Emma (Viera) Rose.

In addition to his widow, he leaves four sons, Richard F. Rose of Wilmington, Del., William D. Rose of Taunton, Gordon P. Rose of Raynham, and Wayne M. Rose of Attleboro, Mass.; one daughter, Elaine M. Prairie of Sandwich, Mass.

Also, five brothers, Charles S. Rose, Walter S. Rose, and Anthony S. Rose, all of Taunton, Arthur S. Rose of San Diego, Calif., and Robert S. Rose of Hartford, Conn.; three sisters, Mary Callahan and Evelyn Walton, both of Taunton, and Hilda Ulak of Rehoboth, Mass.; ten grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.

MANUEL FONTES

PLANTATION, Fla. — R. Fontes, 89, of 1035 Crom N.E., Palm Bay, Fla., formerly of Taunton, Mass., died Sun Doctors General Hospital following a lengthy illness. the husband of the late (Rose) Fontes.

He was a finisher for years at Harodite Finishin Taunton, and resided on Street in Taunton before at age 65 and moving to Flor

He was a former com of Our Lady of Lourdes ( Taunton.

Son of the late Mar Maria (Conceicao) Fontes, born in Fayal, Azores, to Taunton 70 years ago.

He is survived by Albert W. Fontes of Ta George R. Fontes of P six grandchildren; and great-grandchildren.

CHARLES ORANELLAS

BROCKTON — Charles F. Oranellas, 69, of Brockton, formerly of Taunton, died in his home Tuesday, following a short illness. He was the husband of Lillian (Butler) Oranellas.

He was employed as a maker by the Corcoran Show Co. of Stoughton, and, later, by the Knapp Shoe Co. of Brockton.

When he became ill, he was working for the Brockton Foot Joy Co.

He was born in Taunton, but his parents, the late Ferdinando and A. Amelia (Gomes) Oranellas, returned to Portugal when he was a young boy and raised him there.

He returned to Taunton at age 19 and served in the Civilian Conservation Corps for one year before enlisting in the U.S. Army.

A member of the Cannon Company of the 22nd Infantry, he served in the European Theater during World War Two, and received a Purple Heart.

He resided in Stoughton for seven years after his discharge from the Army, moving to Brockton 33 years ago.

In addition to his widow, he leaves two sons, Stephen C. Oranellas of Brockton and Charles J. Oranellas of Lanesboro; three daughters, Mary R. Bulman of Brockton, Brenda M. Roberts of Pittsburg, Calif., and Jean P. Herd of San Francisco, Calif.

Also, seven brothers and two sisters, all of Portugal; two grandsons, Jefferson Oranellas and Joseph Oranellas, both of Lanesboro; three cousins, Msgr. Anthony Gomes of Our Lady of the Angels Church, Fall River, Manny Gomes of Taunton, and Juvenile ("Red") Gomes of Methuen; and several nephews and nieces.

ELIZA CARDOZA

Eliza (Rodrigues) Cardoza, 92, of 23 Plain St., wife of the late Joseph A. Cardoza, died Friday at Morton Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Portugal, she came to Taunton over 60 years ago and was employed as a spinner for the former Talbot Wool Co. of Norton. She retired when the mill ceased operations.

She was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church and was a member of the Weir Senior Citizens.

She leaves a daughter, Mary C. Davis of Taunton; a son, Antone Cardoza of Taunton; and five grandchildren.

LOUIS FERNANDES

Louis T. Fernandes, 58, of 18 Fairview Ave., a worker at Texas Instruments for 35 years, died suddenly Wednesday at Morton Hospital, where he was transported after being stricken by a heart attack. He was the husband of Veronica O. (Costa) Fernandes.

He worked as a foreman of the Navy line and an engineering aide at Texas Instruments in Attleboro for 35 years, until retiring in 1984 due to ill health.

He was former secretary and treasurer of the Taunton Ten Pin Bowling League, a member of the Merchant's Bowling League of Roseland, and a member of the Texas Instruments golf team.

A native and lifelong resident of Taunton, he was educated in Taunton schools and was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

He was the son of John G. Fernandes and the late Wilhelmina "Garmie" (DuPont) Fernandes.

Besides his widow and father, he leaves two sons, Louis Fernandes, Jr. of Taunton and David Fernandes of Norton; a daughter, Mrs. Wilfred (Lois Marie) LeFavre) of Taunton; two brothers, John Fernandes of Norton and William Fernandes of South Attleboro; a sister, Shirley Fernandes of Taunton; eight grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.

FRANCIS SILVIA

Francis R. Silvia, 71, of 2 Maple St. died Wednesday at Brockton Hospital after an illness of several weeks. He was husband of the late Anna (Soares) Silvia.

He was a construction laborer and was employed for many years by the former Walter Barker Construction Co.

He worked from the Union Hall in Taunton, Local 876 of the Laborers' International Union, and continued to maintain union membership.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Manuel R. and Mary (Souza) Silvia.

Survivors include two brothers, John R. Silvia of West Bridgewater and Theodore R. Silvia of Taunton; two sisters, Elaine White and Mary Passwater, both of Taunton; two grandchildren, Francis M. Silvia and Donna Marie Silvia, both of Taunton; and several nephews and nieces.