DAMON FRANCISCO

Damon E. Francisco, 69, of 2 Upland Road died Sunday at Morton Hospital, following a short illness. He was the husband of the late Thelma L. Francisco.

A chemical engineer for Union Carbide of New York until his retirement, he had been educated in New York schools and at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, from which he graduated in 1933.

He was a captain in the United States Army during World War Two.

Born in Port Jervis, N.Y., he was the son of the late Earl and Jane (Damon) Francisco.

Survivors include a son, Damon E. Francisco of New York; an aunt, Mrs. Hazel Jonak of Taunton; and two grandchildren.
