

Eugene Furtado

BRISTOL — Eugene Furtado, 87, of 289 State St., a machine operator for the Carr-Fulflex Corp. for 35 years before retiring in 1964, died yesterday at St. Joseph Hospital, North Providence. He was the husband of Deolinda (Cardoza) Furtado.

Born in St. Michael, the Azores, a son of the late Joseph and Adeline (Rocha) Furtado, he lived in Bristol for 68 years.

Mr. Furtado had a hobby of making violins and gave them as gifts to his family and friends. He was a communicant of St. Elizabeth's Church.

Besides his wife he leaves three sons, Eugene Furtado Jr. of Warren, Joseph Furtado of Bristol and John Furtado of Tiverton; four grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The funeral will be held Tuesday at 8 a.m. from the George C. Lima Funeral Home, 367 High St., with a Mass of Christian Burial at 9 at St. Elizabeth's Church, Wood Street. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.
