Jesse R. Furtado

FALL RIVER — Jesse R. Furtado, 58, of 310 Walden St. died unexpectedly Sunday. He was the husband of Mary (Lopes) Furtado.

He was a lifelong resident of Fall River and a member of the Espirito Santo Church. He was employed for the past three years as a press operator at the L.B. File Co., Fall River. Prior to that, he worked at Berkshire Hathaway in Fall River as a battery hand.

Mr. Furtado was a member of the Holy Ghost Society of the Espirito Santo Church. He served in the Army during World War II in the India-Burma Campaign.

Survivors include his widow; his mother, Mary (Guimar) Furtado; two sons, the Rev. Steven R., chaplain of St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford, and Peter R. of Fall River; a brother, Joseph R. Jr. of Tiverton, R.I.; and two sisters, Irene Barboza and Delores Pavao, both of Fall River.

Arrangements are by the Silva Funeral Home, 730 Bedford St.
