Kathryn Glass rites tomorrow

Mrs. Kathryn (Sylvia) Glass of Allston and Bridgewater, a retired Boston area restaurant hostess and waitress, died yesterday in Brockton Hospital after a long illness.

Born and educated in Bridgewater, she had been employed at various times at the Somerset Hotel, Nick's and the Sea and Surf Restaurant in Boston and the Twelve Eighty Restaurant in Brookline. She retired in 1972.

She leaves her husband, William D. Glass; a daughter, Carole Kerris of Norton; two brothers, William E. Sylvia of Middleboro and Robert F. Sylvia of Long Beach, Calif., and a grandchild.

A Mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the St. Thomas Aquinas Church in Bridgewater, followed by burial in the church cemetery.

Arrangements are by the Prophet Funeral Home in Bridgewater.
