

T & Obituaries 11/22/87

FRANK GOMES

Frank Gomes, 69, of 9 Staples St. died Sunday morning at Morton Hospital after a long illness. He was the husband of Ida (Cabral) Gomes.

He worked for over 38 years as a baler for the Noyes-Gebhardt Co. before retiring in 1962. He was a communicant of Holy Family Church.

Born and educated in Taunton schools, he was the son of the late Manuel and Mary (DaSilva) Gomes.

In addition to his wife he leaves a son, Paul Cabral of East Taunton, and four sisters, Elizabeth Gomes, Wilhelmina Gomes, Mrs. Antone (Olinda) Martin, all of Taunton, and Mrs. Charles (Olive) Kalaher of Raynham.

He is also survived by a niece and three nephews.

MANUEL MARTINS

Manuel Farias Martins, 82, of 37 Purchase St. died Sunday morning at Taunton Nursing Home after a long illness. He was the husband of Mary Paula (Silvia) Martins.

A communicant of St. Anthony's Church, he worked for many years as a laborer for the Brockton-Taunton Gas Co. before he retired in 1967.

He was born in St. Michael, Azores.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Anthony Martins of Taunton, and a daughter, Mrs. James (Alice) Pacheco, also of Taunton.

He is also survived by three brothers, Antonio Farias of Somerville, and Joseph Martins and Francisco Martins, both of St. Michael, Azores.

Also surviving him is a sister, Maria Jose Martins of St. Michael, Azores, as well as four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

ROSE PEREIRA

NORTH PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Rose S. Pereira, 72, of 736 a former Taunton, Mass. resident and a retired assembler, died Sunday at St. Joseph Hospital. She was the wife of Raul Pereira.

Born in Taunton, daughter of the late William and Rose (Nunes) Silva, she worked 13 years for the Imperial Knife Company, Providence, retiring in 1975.

In addition to her husband, she leaves two sons, Raul Pereira Jr., of Seekonk, and Adelino Pereira, of Lanham, Md., and a daughter, Nancy Pereira, of Seekonk.

She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Drummond, of Taunton, and four grandchildren.