

up spotty

Mac Says: "ORDER"

John Gonsalves

John Gonsalves, 60, of Ryan Street, New Bedford, died yesterday after a brief illness. He was the husband of Mary (Pineiro) Gonsalves.

He was a lifelong New Bedford resident and a communicant of St. John the Baptist Church. He was employed by Cliftex Corp. as a shipper and receiver until his retirement.

Mr. Gonsalves was a member of the American Legion Post No. 459, the American Association of Retired Persons of New Bedford and the Mount Carmel Senior Citizens. He also was a World War II Army veteran.

Survivors include his widow; a daughter, Susan Brown of New Bedford; a sister, Angie Correia of New Bedford; and a grandson.

Arrangements are by the Perry Funeral Home, 111 Dartmouth St., New Bedford.

GONSALVES — In this city, April 5, John Gonsalves, husband of Mary (Pineiro) Gonsalves of Ryan St., aged 60 years. Funeral from the Perry Funeral Home, 111 Dartmouth St., Wednesday at 9. Funeral Mass at St. John the Baptist Church at 10. Relatives and friends are invited. Visiting hours 2-4 and 7-9. Army veteran World War II.

GONSALVES — In this city, April 5, John Gonsalves, husband of Mary (Pineiro) Gonsalves of Ryan St., aged 60 years. Funeral from the Perry Funeral Home, 111 Dartmouth St., Wednesday at 9. Funeral Mass at St. John the Baptist Church at 10. Relatives and friends are invited. Visiting hours Tuesday only 2-4 and 7-9. Army veteran World War II.