

FRANK JORDAN
EAST PROVIDENCE —

Frank P. Jordan, 73, of 92 Evergreen Drive and husband of Rose E. (Carey) Jordan, died yesterday at his home.

Born in San Miguel, Azores, he was the son of the late Manuel P. and Francisca (Galego) Jordan. He retired in 1973 after 15 years as a textile weaver with Berkshire Hathaway Mills, Warren.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. John F.
Kelly of Rehoboth, and Delores Peters of Hollywood, Fla.; a brother, Manuel Jordan of New Bedford; two sisters, Agnes Galego of Fall River, and Albertina Galego of East Providence; nine grandchildren and two great

3/10/83 TG