

WILLIAM J. KING

William J. King, 83, of 150 Oak St., a retired machinist, died yesterday morning at Morton Hospital following a lengthy illness. He was the husband of the late Seraphina (Pimental) King.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Manuel and Mary (Syliva) King and was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church.

He worked for many years as a machinist for the former Industrial Tool Company and later as a watchman for the former Geilich Tannery. He was also a call fireman for the Taunton Fire Department for many years.

Survivors include a son, William M. of Taunton, a daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Natalie K.) Pucko of Hingham, a brother, retired Taunton Deputy Fire Chief Arthur King of South Yarmouth and two sisters, Rose K. Rezendes of Taunton and Mary Mason of Clearwater, Fla.

Also, he leaves eight grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

5/21/81
ANTONE S. SOITOS

Antone S. Soitos, 81, of 3 Lawton Ave., husband of Mary R. (Silva) Soitos, died Wednesday night at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Fayal, Azores, he was a son of the late Joseph S. and Enacia (Andrade) Soitos. A resident of Taunton for 66 years, Soitos was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

He worked for many years as a stove mounter for the Glenwood Range Company and later worked as a spray painter for the former Geilich Tannery. He retired at age 61.

Beside his wife, he is survived two sons, Francis S. Soitos and Antone S. Soitos Jr., both of Taunton and one daughter, Mrs. Ennsencio (Eileen) Coelho of Taunton.

He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Anna Soito and Mrs. Angelina Silveira, both of East Providence, R.I., three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.