

Obituaries

MARY LEATHERBARROW

Mrs. Mary (Lopes) Leatherbarrow, 86, wife of William Leatherbarrow of 6 Thrasher Ave. and a former licensed practical nurse at the Paul A. Dever School, died Wednesday at the Rose Hawthorne Lathrop Home in Fall River following a long illness.

Born in Taunton, she was a lifelong resident of this city and was the daughter of the late John and Theresa (Mello) Lopes. She was educated in city schools.

She retired from the Dever School in 1965 and was a member of the Catholic Nurses Guild, the North Taunton Senior Citizens, and was formerly a foster grandparent at the Dever School.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Edith Burrus of Taunton; two sisters, Mrs. Joseph (Eva) Arruda of Taunton and Mrs. Manuel (Emma) Tavares of East Providence; three brothers, Arthur Lopes, Charles Lopes and George Lopes, all of Taunton; two grandchildren, Robin and Michael Burrus of Taunton; and several nieces and nephews.