ROBERT J. LEMA

Robert Joseph Lema, 42, of 74 Oak Street, a screw machine operator for the Foxboro Company, died Thursday evening at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Brighton after a short illness. He was the husband of Carol A. (LeBlanc) Lema.

Born in Taunton, he was a son of Manuel and Susan A. (Perry) Lema. A graduate of Taunton High School, Lema served six years in the U.S. Navy. He was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church.

Beside his wife, father and mother, Lema is survived by one son, Richard J. Lema of Taunton and one brother, Lawrence A. Lema of East Bridgewater.

He also leaves two sisters, Phyllis V. Lema of Carle Place, N.Y. and Mary P. McCarthy of Taunton; and two nephews and a niece.
