

11/28/82

P.5

Maj. Edward Rodrigues

PROVIDENCE — Maj. Edward A. Rodrigues, USAR, 48, of 77 Merino St., attached to the Army Logistic Center, Ft. Lee, Va., before illness in August, died Thursday at the Naval Regional Medical Center, Newport. He was the husband of Shirley E. (Gosselin) Rodrigues.

Before his return to active duty in August, 1981, he was in the real estate business for 17 years. He had been education chairman of the Rhode Island Realtors Committee. He was also director and an instructor for the Hall Institute and the DeFelice Realtors Schools. He was named "Realtor of the Year" in the commercial and investment division in 1975.

Mr. Rodrigues was a member of the National Association of Realtors, the Greater Providence Board of Realtors, the National Reserve Officers Association of the U.S. and the American Legion, Post 60. He served in the Rhode Island National Guard for 12 years.

Born in New Bedford, a son of the late Antonio and Maria (Rodrigues) Rodrigues, he lived in Providence for the past 46 years.

Besides his wife he leaves three daughters, Jo Anne, Christine E. and Shirleen E. Rodrigues, all at home; two brothers, George Rodrigues of Warwick, Anthony Rodrigues, and a sister, Miss Lydia Rodrigues, both of Providence.

A military funeral will be held tomorrow with a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Anthony's Church, Plainfield Street, at 10. Burial will be in St. Ann's Cemetery, Cranston.

Manuel J. Libramento

ASHEBORO, N.C. — Manuel J. Libramento, 84, of Route 4, a retired registered nurse at Bellevue Hospital, New York City, died Friday at Randolph Hospital. He was the husband of Anna (Boros) Libramento.

Born in LaLinea, Spain, a son of the late Antonio and Maria (Silva) Libramento, he lived in Asheboro since 1977.

Mr. Libramento retired in 1963 after working at Bellevue Hospital for 30 years.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Grant D. Libramento of Asheboro, and five grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Pugh Funeral Home Chapel, 444 Sunset Ave. Burial will be in Shiloh Baptist Church Cemetery.