

tte, Thursday, May 15, 1980

Obitua

EMMA M. LIMA

MIDDLEBORO— Mrs. Emma M. (Morris) Lima, 75, formerly of South Street East, Raynham, a retired press operator, died this morning at Oak Hill Nursing Home following a lengthy illness. She was the widow of Antone P. Lima.

Until retiring about 15 years ago, she was employed at Swanks Inc. of Attleboro. Previously, she worked as a foot press operator for the former Taunton Pearl Works.

Born in Raynham, daughter of the late Manuel and Mariann (Medeiros) Morris, she was a former communicant of Holy Family Church, East Taunton.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Arthur (Evelyn) Farias of Raynham, and Mrs. Richard (Audrey) Watts of East Weymouth; four brothers, Joseph Morris, Anthony Morris and John Morris, all of Raynham, and Frank Morris of Middleboro.

Also, six sisters, Mrs. August (Mary) Silvia of East Boston, Mrs. Manuel (Rose) Perry of East Wareham, Mrs. Sam (Eva) Watland of Poulsbo, Wash., Mrs. Manuel (Marion) DeCosta of Pocasset, Mrs. Anthony (Rita) Medeiros of Cupertino, Calif., and Flora Morris of Raynham; five grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.