LAWRENCE LOPES

Lawrence Lopes, 59, of 62 East Water St. died at Morton Hospital this morning, following a long illness. He was the husband of Louise M. (Rebeiro) Lopes.

A resident of Taunton for the past 40 years, he was a heavy equipment operator for the J.L. Marshall Construction Co. until about seven months ago, when he became ill. He formerly served as business manager for the laborers' union in Taunton.

A communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, he was past president of the Atlantic Fishing Club and an honorary member of David F. Adams Post 611, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Born in Norton, he was the son of the late Bartholomew and Escolicia (Baptiste) Lopes.

In addition to his widow, he leaves three sons, Larry V. Lopes, James G. Lopes, and John Lopes, all of Taunton; four daughters, Mrs. Terrence (Patricia) Turner, Mrs. Bruce (Cynthia) Texeira, Mrs. John (Cheryl) Raymond, and Mrs. Tom (Deidra) Harris, all of Taunton.

Also, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Enos and Mrs. Dominga Gonsalves, both of Taunton, and Mrs. Alicia Fonseca of Pawtucket, r.I.; eight grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.

ANTHONY C. REBELLO

Anthony Charles Rebello, 70, of 28 Fifth St. died Friday at Morton Hospital, following a long illness.

He was employed for many years as a finisher for the Bay State Crucible Co.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church and a member of the church's Holy Ghost Society and Holy Name Society, as well as the Merry Senior Citizens, the Weir Senior Citizens, and the Golden Agers.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Antone P. and Mary (Andre) Rebello.

He leaves a brother, Charles J. Rebello of Taunton; three sisters, Mrs. Louis (Marion) Soares, Theresa L. Rebello, and Mrs. Joseph (Eleanor) DeMoura, all of Taunton; and several nephews and nieces.
