

January 4, 1984

varies

JOHN E. MALO

John E. Malo, a retired self-employed carpenter, died at his home at 9 Dean St. yesterday morning after a long illness. He was 85.

A lifelong resident of Taunton, he was the son of the late Louis L. and Annie C. (Julius) Malo and the husband of the late Louise G. (Tierney) Malo. He was a communicant of St. Mary's Church.

Surviving him are nine daughters, Florence Malo, Mrs. Samuel (Gladys) Perry, Mrs. George (Dorothy) Brennan, Mrs. Anthony (Mildred) Camara and Mrs. Robert (Shirley) Escobar, all of Taunton, Marie Malo of Marston Mills, Mrs. William (Joan) Carter of Amesbury, Mrs. Barbara O'Connell and Mrs. Humberto (Madeline) Nascimento, both of Riverside, R.I.

He also leaves four sons, Charles Malo of North Easton, Herbert Malo of Stoughton, Francis E. Malo and Richard E. Malo, both of Taunton; a brother, Walter Malo of Taunton; a sister, Mrs. Raymond (Virginia) Bennett of Providence, R.I.; 26 grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

HENRY DUARTE

Henry L. Duarte, 84, of 22 First St. died Monday at Morton Hospital, following a long illness. He was the husband of the late Laura (Dias) Duarte.

He worked for many years as a machine operator at the former Cardin Manufacturing Co. of Mansfield.

Son of the late Joaquin and Anna (Lopes) Duarte, he was born in the Cape Verde Islands and resided in Taunton over 60 years.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

Surviving are two sons, John Duarte of Mansfield and Henry Duarte Jr. of Taunton; two daughters, Albertina T. Duarte and Ann Shirley Duarte, both of Taunton; seven grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.