

ELPIDIO MARQUES

Elpidio Marques, 87, of 70 Oak St., husband of Palmira (Figueiredo) Marques, died early this morning at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Lisbon, Portugal, he was a son of the late Joaquin L. and Maria J. Marques. A communicant of St. Anthony's Church, he was a member of the Portuguese Continental Union Corte Reale Lodge 7.

For many years he was a moulder at the Perkins Foundry, Bridgewater, where he had worked until age 72. He also worked for local stove industries.

In addition to his wife he leaves two sons, James L. Marques of East Taunton, and Mario Marques of Green Belt, Md.; a sister, Mrs. Joaquina Mendes of Portugal; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

2/14/83 T.G.
MORTON HOSPITAL