

ANTONE MARSHALL 1948
WEST ROXBURY

Antone Marshall, 73, of 71 Fairview Ave., Rehoboth, a retired employee of Texas Instruments, died Monday at the Veterans Administration Medical Center following a lengthy illness.

Born in Taunton, son of the late Antone and Mary (Perry) Marshall, he served during World War Two as a sergeant with the Army's 314th base headquarters and air base squadron.

He also served for many years with the National Guard and Maritime Service prior to World War Two.

He was employed as an annealer at Texas Instruments, Attleboro, for 21 years until his retirement eight years ago. He was a former communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Rose McMorrow, of Taunton, and Mrs. Mary Alger, of Wells River, Vermont, along with a half-sister, Mrs. Edith Crowley, of Taunton, and several nieces and nephews.
