ROGER MASSE

NORTON — Roger L. Masse, 58, of 3 Samoset St., who worked as a chef at several area restaurants, died suddenly Saturday at his home. He was the husband of Lillian (Santos) Masse.

Born in Taunton, son of the late Alfred and Lavina (Lamarche) Masse, he was educated in Taunton schools, and was a communicant of St. Jacques Church.

Before becoming a chef, he had worked as a self-employed carpenter for many years.

In addition to his wife, he leaves three sons, Roger L. Masse Jr., Rickie F. Masse, and Roy M. Masse, all of Norton, and a daughter, Mrs. Wilfred (Sandra) Schobel, of Middleboro.

He is also survived by four brothers, Alfred Masse and Francis Masse, both of Taunton; Raymond Masse, of Clearwater, Texas, and Robert Masse, of Waterville, Calif.

He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Joseph (Evelyn) Costanza, of Florida, and Mrs. William (Madelaine) Phillips and Mrs. Lorraine Langlois, both of Pawtucket, R.I.

He also leaves seven grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.
