

Joaquina Medeiros, 90

DARTMOUTH — Funeral services were to be held today for Joaquina (Camara) Medeiros, 90, of Coolidge Street, South Dartmouth, who died Monday after a long illness. She was the widow of John V. Medeiros and the daughter of the late Nicolau and Victoria (Viverios) Camara.

She was born in Brethana, St. Michael, Azores, and lived in South Dartmouth 60 years. She was a communicant of St. Mary Church. Her husband was the founder of Capitol Dairy.

Survivors include three daughters, Mary M. Roderick, Hilda Rebello and Evelyn Arruda, all of South Dartmouth; six sons, John V. Jr., Joseph V., Manuel V., and Gilbert V., all of South Dartmouth, James V. of New Bedford and Frank V. of Fremont, Calif.; a sister, Mary Gloria Silva of Eureka, Calif.; 18 grandchildren, and 16 great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Aubertine Funeral Home, 129 Allen St., New Bedford.