

3/26/81

THERESA C. MELLO

CAMBRIDGE — Theresa C. (Medeiros) Mello, a native of St. Michael, Azores, who lived here most of her life, died Sunday afternoon at Cambridge Hospital after a lengthy illness. She was 84.

She was the widow of Antonio C. Mello and the daughter of the late John and Francesca (Arruda) Medeiros of St. Michael.

She was a housewife and a communicant of St. Anthony's Church in Cambridge.

Survivors include a daughter, Eva Camacho of Taunton, and four sons, Alfred of Watertown, James of Florida, William of Cambridge and Francis of Middleton.