

10/7/83

Obituaries

James Mendes

CHELSEA — James Mendes, 66, died yesterday after a brief illness. He died at the Whidden Memorial Hospital, Everett.

He was born in Freetown, lived in New Bedford about 25 years and lived in Chelsea about 30 years. He was employed by the Sweetheart Paper Co. of Chelsea for 30 years until his retirement.

Survivors include a daughter, Arlene Fernandes of New Bedford; a son, Kenneth of Oregon; three brothers, George of Columbus, Ohio,

John of Oregon, and Melvin of Lynn; a sister, Doris Baptiste of New Bedford; and three grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Welsh Funeral Home.