AGOSTINHO MENDONCA

Retired welder Agostinho Melo Mendonca, 66, of 51 North Pleasant St., died Thursday at Morton Hospital following a short illness. He was the husband of Maria dos Anjos (Rebello) Mendonca.

He had worked as a welder for the Norwell Mfg. Co., for 13 years, retiring last year. He was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church.

Born in Povocao, St. Michael, Azores, he was the son of the late Agostinho da Costa Mendonca and Rosa (deMelo) Mendonca, moving to this country in 1966.

Survivors include his wife, a son, José Rebello Costa of Taunton; two daughters, Mrs. Manuel (Maria Rosa) Pimental of Taunton, Mrs. Pedro (Maria Evalina) Franco of Toronto, Canada; 11 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.
