

9/15/80

GERALDINE MENDONCA

Mrs. Geraldine J. (Enos) Mendonca, 38, of 235 Gardner St., Raynham, mother of three and active in church organizations, died unexpectedly Sunday at Morton Hospital. She was the wife of Jose "Joe" G. Mendonca.

She was employed for the past nine years as an insurance adjuster by Commercial Union Insurance Co. of Brockton. She was a member of the Portuguese Holy Ghost Society of Bridgewater and the Portuguese-American Club of Broad Street, Bridgewater.

A communicant of St. Ann's Church, Raynham, she was formerly a member of St. Thomas Aquinas Church of Bridgewater, and had been a teacher in that church's CCD religious education program.

Born in Brockton, daughter of Mrs. Pauline (Ferreira) Enos and the late William Enos, she attended Bridgewater schools, was a town resident for most of her life and resided in Raynham for the past five years.

Besides her husband of Raynham, and mother of Bridgewater, she leaves one son, David M. Mendonca of Raynham; two daughters, Theresa L. Mendonca and Julie J. Mendonca, both of Raynham.

Also, one sister, Mrs. Sean (Cynthia) McGrail of Worcester; and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.