ALICIA MESSER

Alicia (Baptiste) Messer, 74, of 21 Williams Ave., a retired employee of Coppercraft Guild, died suddenly Saturday at her home.

Born in Taunton, daughter of the late Antone and Rose (Munise) Baptiste, she was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church. She was employed by Coppercraft as a bench worker for many years.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Elaine Dernoga, of Taunton.

She is also survived by a brother, Manuel Baptiste, of Middleboro, and three sisters, Mrs. Lucille Alves and Mrs. Albert (Anna) Andrade, both of Taunton, and Mrs. William (Rose) Smith, of Woodbine, Georgia.

She also leaves six grandchildren, two great grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.
