

JAMES MOTT

James Francis Mott, 68, of 63 Purchase St. died Saturday at Morton Hospital following a short illness. He was the husband of Mary J. (Pimental) Mott.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Samuel and Gertrude K. (Murphy) Mott.

He was employed for many years at Manchester Silver Co. of Providence, R.I. as a silver polisher until his illness two months ago.

He was a communicant of St. Mary's Church.

An Army veteran of World War Two, he was a combat medical corps corporal and served five years in five major campaigns in Europe. He was awarded the Purple Heart after being wounded.

He was a member of David F. Adams Post 611, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Besides his widow, he leaves a son, Maurice J. Mott of Taunton; a daughter, Mrs. Ronald (Deborah) Tremblay of Taunton; two sisters, Mrs. John (Mary) MacKinnon and Mrs. Gertrude Leonard, both of Taunton; six grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.

TG 12/21/83