

DAVID NUNES

David Nunes, 54, of Chester Street, former proprietor of Dave's Motors in Raynham, died Tuesday morning at Morton Hospital following a long illness. He was the husband of Doris I. (Harper) Nunes.

Born in Taunton, he was a son of Manuel Nunes and the late Mary (Julio) Nunes. He was employed for many years with the Taunton Department of Public Works until his retirement several years ago.

A communicant of the Immaculate Conception Church, Nunes was also a member of St. Peter's Society.

Beside his wife and his father he is survived by one brother, Walter B. Nunes of Taunton. He also leaves four sons, Donald Wayne Nunes of Raynham, David Alan Nunes, Robert Richard Nunes and Kevin Ronald Nunes, all of Taunton, four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

3/31/81