

MANUEL OLIVERIA

PROVIDENCE, R.I. —

Wire finisher Manuel H. Oliveria, 70, of 576 Winthrop St., Rehoboth, died Wednesday in Rhode Island Hospital following a short illness. He was the husband of Rose M. (DeAquir) Oliveira.

He had worked for the American Insulated Wire Co., Pawtucket, for 24 years, retiring in 1976. Born in Seekonk, the son of the late Manuel and Maria L. (Pacheco) Oliveria, he lived in Rehoboth since 1935.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Roseann Prendergast of Riverside; a son, Henry A. of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Sears of East Providence, Mrs. Edith Cole of Cranston; three brothers, Frank of Rehoboth, Anthony of Seekonk; George of East Providence; and three grandchildren.

4/16/81