

Miss Lewis
was major in biology

Kathleen Mary Lewis, who died Sunday at University Hospital in Boston of injuries received Saturday in a Raynham auto accident, was a freshman majoring in biology at Bridgewater State College.

The 19-year-old daughter of Richard M. and Edith D. (Bailey) Lewis, she was employed part-time at Friendly's Restaurant in Raynham.

She was a 1973 graduate of Martin School and a 1962 graduate of Taunton High School, where she was active in sports as a member of the girls' basketball and volleyball teams.

Along with the rest of her family, she was active in judo, and had attained the brown-belt level in that sport.

She was a resident of 93 Stevens St., East Taunton, and a communicant of Holy Family Church in East Taunton.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are four sisters, Kelly Lewis Medas, Kim Marie Lewis, Kristine Ann Lewis, and Keri Lynn Lewis, all of Taunton; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Stella (Rogovich) Lewis of Taunton; and a nephew, Erik Lewis Medas of Taunton.
