

Obituaries

Aristide Pellerin, 98

NEW BEDFORD — Aristide Pellerin, 98, of 217 Deane St., formerly of 280 Bates St., died yesterday after a long illness. He was the husband of the late Eva (Bouvier) Pellerin.

He died at Oak Hill Nursing Home, Middleboro.

He was born in St. Calixte, Canada and lived most of his life in New Bedford. He was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church. He was employed by the former Nonquit Textile Mills as a weaver until his retirement.

Mr. Pellerin was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters for more than 75 years.

Survivors include one step-son, Norman Dumas of New Bedford; one sister, Albina Varin of Saskatchewan, Canada; 10 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Chausse-Dumont Funeral Home, 1325 Acushnet Ave.

James Price Jr.

SALEM, Conn. — Funeral services were held Thursday for James Price Jr., 54, of Forsyth Road, a textile firm executive who died on Monday. He was the husband of Shirley Kathleen (Skinner) Price.

Mr. Price died at the Hartford Hospital in Hartford.

Born in New Bedford, he was the son of May (Helme) Price, now of Salem, and the late James Price and had made his home in that city until 1951.

A 1947 graduate of New Bedford High School, Mr. Price received a bachelor of science in textile chemistry in 1951 from the New Bedford Institute of Technology (now Southeastern Massachusetts University) where he was a member and consul of Delta Kappa Phi fraternity.

Mr. Price joined Lisbon Textile Prints in 1975, moving to Connecticut, and had been the firm's vice president in charge of operations since 1978.

Mr. Price held a number of patents, including a method of decorating polyester textile fabrics.

Survivors include his widow and mother; four sons, James P. of Tybee Island, Ga., Clifford L. and Mark, both of Salem, and William A. of Colchester; two daughters, Janet E. Sherman and Shirley, both of Salem; one brother, Leonard Price of Port Richard, Fla.; and three grandchildren.

Interment was at Salem Green Cemetery.

7/16/83

Maria daConceicao Soares

NEW BEDFORD — Maria daConceicao Soares, 88, of Bedford Street died yesterday after a long illness. She was the widow of Jose Dias Mateus and daughter of the late Joaquim and Filomena Soares.

She died at Savoy Nursing Home.

She was born in St. Michael, Azores and lived here for 14 years. She was a communicant of St. John the Baptist Church.

Survivors include six sons, Jose Dias Soares of Vancouver, Canada, Jose Dias Mateus and Edmundo Dias Mateus, both of St. Michael, Azores, Hermano Dias Mateus of New Bedford, and Luis Dias Mateus and Francisco Dias Mateus, both of Hamilton, Canada; two daughters, Maria Julia Ponte of New Bedford and Baselia Dias of Toronto, Canada; a sister, Maria S. Sousa of New Jersey; 30 grandchildren, 53 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Perry Funeral Home, 111 Dartmouth St.