

12/21/81 OBITUARY

CHARLES PERRY

Charles Perry, 57, of 2248 County St., East Taunton, died Monday morning at Morton Hospital following a long illness. He was the husband of Adelaide N. (Netinho) Perry.

He had worked for the past 15 years as a cable technician for the New England Telephone Co., and prior to that time had owned and operated Perry's Jenney Station on Broadway.

Born in New Bedford, he was the son of Lidwinia (Medeiros) Perry of Pinellas Park, Fla., and the late Joseph Perry. He had resided in Taunton for the past 54 years and was a communicant of Holy Family Church and a member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Lodge 150.

Survivors include his wife and mother, a son, Charles Jr., of East Taunton; a sister, Mrs. Rudy (Helen) Langis of Lindhurst, N.Y.; two granddaughters, Debra and Susan Perry of East Taunton; a niece and several aunts and uncles.
