

Joseph Perry

5/25/80

FALL RIVER, Mass. — Joseph "Pop" Perry, 72, of 99 Rockland St., a pharmacist at Touhey's Pharmacy for over 20 years and at the former Talbot's Pharmacy for several years, now retired, and who was recently associated with the Rockland Diner, died yesterday at St. Anne's Hospital. He was the husband of the late Dorothy (Riley) Perry.

He was born in Fall River, a son of the late Joseph and Adeline (Medeiros) Perry.

Mr. Perry leaves a son, Carlton P. Perry and a daughter, Mrs. Nancy A. Pelletier, both of Fall River; two sisters, Mrs. Alice Costa of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mrs. Beatrice Silvia of Fall River and two grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning from the Auclair Funeral Home, 690 South Main St., with a Funeral Mass at St. Patrick's Church, South Main Street. Burial will be in Notre Dame Cemetery.
