

Obituaries

ROBERT PERRY

Robert E. Perry, 39, of 43 Third St., died Friday at his home following a short illness. He was the husband of Barbara (Johnson) Perry.

He was employed as a machine operator at the Foxboro Company, was a communicant of Sacred Heart Church and a member of the Italian Social Club.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of Antone P. and Julia (Bento) Suite-Perry. He was a lifelong resident of Taunton and educated in city schools.

Survivors include his wife and parents, two daughters, Donna Marie and Mary; three sons, Robert, Troy and Eric; two sisters, Mrs. Lorraine Brailey of New Bedford, Mrs. Raymond (Irene) Benoit of Acushnet; four brothers, Antone Suite-Perry, Donald Perry, both of Salt Lake City, Utah, George Perry of Taunton, John D. of Raynham; a step-daughter, Janice Longo of Taunton; five step-sons, David, Daniel, James, William and Robert Longo, all of Taunton; six step-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

EDITH SYLVIA

CINCINNATI — Retired seamstress Edith (Sposini) Sylvia, 74, of 8790 Appleknoll Lane, formerly of 229 Berkley St., Taunton, Mass., died Wednesday at the Jewish Hospital following a short illness. She was the wife of Joseph Sylvia.

She had worked for the Taunton Dress Co., as a seamstress until her retirement. Born in Fall River, Mass., she was the daughter of Nazzarano and Mary (Bianchi) Sposini and was educated in Taunton schools. She had lived in Cincinnati for the past several years.

Survivors include her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Melvin (Lorraine E.) Wilson of Cincinnati; four brothers, James Sposini of Newark, N.J., Joseph Sposini of Bricktown, N.J., Frederick Sposini of Raynham, Mass., and Louis Sposini of Bridgewater, Mass., and two grandchildren.