Charles A. Pike

NEW BEDFORD — Charles A. Pike, 78, of 37 Lindsey St. died unexpectedly yesterday at home. He was the husband of Vera W. (Sowle) Pike.

He was born in Dartmouth and lived the past 40 years in New Bedford. He was employed as a sheet-metal worker for Revere Copper and Brass of New Bedford until retiring in 1970.

Mr. Pike was the son of the late Herman and Elizabeth (Niles) Pike.

Survivors include his widow; three daughters, Beverly Sherman, Arlene Baldwin and Phyllis Medeiros, all of New Bedford; a sister, Helen A. Allen of New Bedford; and eight grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Potter Funeral Home, 81 Reed Road, Westport.
